IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM – In living memory of my husband, the Reverend Columbus A. Marshall who departed this life November 15, 1969.

I miss you in the morning,
When memories are new.
I miss you in the noontide
And the things you used to do.

I miss you in the evening-
When shadows slowly fall.

But at night when prayers are lifted up,
I miss you most of all.
Sadly missed by his wife, Mary. 11-18-1p

CARD of THANKS

There are times when it is hard to find words to express thanks to friends and neighbors for their love and kindness, such as shown me during my illness. I am very grateful to each of you for everything, especially do I appreciate the faithfulness of my pastor, Rev. Derryl Holliday for all of your prayers, and the dedication of the Drs. and nurses to their work. They were so kind to me while in the hospital. God's blessings on you. William O'Brien 11/18/1p

I would like to thank everyone for their prayers, cards, visits, and every act of kindness shown me and my family while I was in the hospital and since I have come home. Alex Garrett. 11/18/1p

I wish to express my appreciation to my friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindnesses shown me during my stay in the hospital and since my return home. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered. Virginia Mann 11/18/1p

I would like to thank my friends and relatives for flowers, prayers, calls, cards and visits while I was in the hospital and since my return home. Also Dr. O'Brien and the Rescue Squad. Russell Mann 11/18/1t

I would like to thank the Rescue Squad for taking my wife to the hospital and also for taking my mother to the hospital on three other occasions. The Rescue Squad is giving invaluable service to many of us and I would like to add my grateful word of appreciation to all of the members. Harry Jenkins 11-21-1p

I would like to thank all my relatives, friends and family for all the wonderful deeds and concern shown me during my stay in the hospital and after my return home. May God bless you all abundantly. Betty Maxwell. 11-18-1t

Miss Mattie Moss and Mrs. Daisye Saunders wish to thank their many friends for their love and sympathy expressed in so many ways since the death of their sister, Mrs. Belle Harvey.

May special blessings return to them. 11/18/1t

The family of Mr. W. E. Layne, Sr. wishes to thank their neighbors, friends, and relatives for the many acts of kindness shown them during their recent bereavement. Also a special thanks to Dr. A. A. Fratrik and the Appomattox County Rescue Squad.

May God richly bless each one of you. The Family 11/18/1p

PUBLIC NOTICE

The following proposed ordinance will be considered by the Appomattox Town Council at their December 1971 meeting.

SEC. 4-1
Keeping Fowl, Livestock, etc.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, or corporation to allow or permit any fowl or poultry, or livestock of any description, to stray to public property or private premises of another, and all poultry, fowl or livestock shall be sufficiently housed or fenced up by the owner or person exercising control over such poultry, etc., so as to prevent the same from trespassing or straying.

The lot whereon any livestock is kept within the Town must have an area of at least two and one half(2 1/2) acres for each head of livestock, and the lot must be at least one hundred(100) feet from any dwelling.

SEC. 4-4-1.
STABLES: A suitable stable shall be maintained for the animal/or animals within the lot, and shall be approved by the Health Department before a permit is issued.

(a) Every stable in the town shall be thoroughly cleaned at least once a day, and shall have sufficient light to make cleaning practicable, and sufficient ventilation to keep the stable air pure at all times.

(b) Every stable shall have either within or immediately adjoining, a watertight, covered room or box, bin, or barrel for receiving and holding manure and litter which accumulates between the times of removal from the premises. The fitness of such box, bin, or barrel shall be passed upon by the department of public health. The manure shall be removed and disposed of in a sanitary manner.

SEC. 4-4-2.
PERMIT: A permit shall be required before any of the above animals may be kept in Town. The permit may be revoked at any time the use regulations are violated.

SEC. 4-4-3.
FINES: Anyone violating this ordinance will be fined five (5) dollars and costs. Each day of violation will be considered a separate offence.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This ordinance shall be effective on and after ———— 1971.

APPOMATTOX (VA.), 24522 - TIMES VIRGINIAN, NOVEMBER 18, 1971

Every time we fill a prescription for what ails you, we contribute a penny for what ails him.

What ails him is drug abuse. It could kill him. At Revco we're deeply concerned about drug abuse, and we're putting our money where our concern is. For every prescription we fill, we contribute one cent to the fight against drug abuse. Chainwide, Revco fills more than eleven million prescriptions per year. So our total contribution this year should be over $110,000. As a legitimate dispenser of drugs in your community, we want drugs to cure, not kill. As concerned pharmacists, we urge you, as a responsible citizen, to join the fight against drug abuse.
